

image
art
award
CONTEST

DEADLINE FOR ENTRIES: August 1, 2020

THEME: “Higher & Higher”

The Ralwins Art Gallery announces that Image Art Award Contest is now open for submissions. This award supports the creation of new work by talented emerging artists and the opportunity to share that work through an exhibit and artist talk at INSPIRE-Miami 2020 art fair. The winning artwork will also be featured in the INSPIRE catalogue. Artist should use the award to further his/her work in a significant direction. Artists may work in any medium, except for video or sound art.

An “EMERGING” artist is defined as one who is early in their art career, with solid studies in art or amazing original self-taught talent, and exhibit experience in group shows, but not an extensive solo exhibit history. The qualifications for this award are that the artist’s submitted artwork is of high caliber, original, relevant to the theme HIGHER & HIGHER and completed within the past 3 years. Artist must be 18 years of age or older and must be dedicated to the practice of creating and exhibiting art. This contest is open to artists from around the world and will be determined by a panel of sponsors and gallery’s directors.

This contest is under-written by the director of Ralwins Art Gallery, Yorka Ralwins, who also will publish the winner in the December 2020 edition of Art & Beyond Magazine.

Submissions must include a Biography, Artist Statement, the artwork image in .jpg no larger than 300 dpi, via inspire.imageaward@gmail.com or submit HERE. The application fee is $30 per submission.

The winner will be announced by August 20th.

The Ralwins Art Gallery is in Ellaville, Georgia and has a history of supporting artists in their early career development. Its mission is to serve the art community through offering high caliber artists and providing platforms to brand their career.